

The Abomination that Desolates

Matthew: When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation

Mark: when ye shall see the abomination of desolation

Luke: when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies

Luke: For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side

Cestius Gallus's sudden departure from the siege of Jerusalem in 66AD, gave the Christians the sign Yeshua had prophesied. This is described in "War of the Jews", by Flavius Josephus. No Christians died in 70AD.

Quote: [551] And then it was that Cestius, despairing of obtaining room for a public march, contrived how he might best run away;

Senate & People for Rome

Daniel 9:26

the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined

Daniel 11:31

And armies shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate

Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the mountains

But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day

In other words: wake Christians that observe Yehova's Commandments
